

5th July 2006

Notting Hill Carnival with SeaFrance Voyages

The Notting Hill Carnival, which will be held on 27th and 28th August 2006, attracts more than two million spectators every year. Held in the heart of the Jamaican district of London, the drums and dances take over this part of the capital, setting it alight thanks to groups and bands from all four corners of the globe.

Spectators see Europe's largest street carnival with music and a succession of dazzlingly flamboyant costumes. A guarantee of a Caribbean atmosphere in the British capital.

Stay in one of the most trendy hotels in London, the Kensington Rooms, famous for a totally contemporary, modern look and a zen atmosphere. This is luxury and comfort unburdened by tradition and the prices are very attractive.

Price per adult from € 170, including:

- Paris/London return on Eurostar (2nd class)
- 1 night in the Kensington Rooms in a double room with continental breakfast

Information and booking:

www.seafrancevoyages.com and 0825.826.000

(€ 0.15 /min. incl. VAT)

SeaFrance provides 30 passenger services a day between Calais and Dover