

Calais, 8th June 2006

Festival of Music: SeaFrance is playing music on the Channel

On 21st June 2006, France's national festival of music day, the SeaFrance Berlioz and SeaFrance Rodin ferries will be offering crossings with a music accompaniment between Calais and Dover.

Three types of music on the SeaFrance Berlioz leaving Calais at 8 p.m.:

- "Piano bar" with Laurent Lamal and Sandrine Vahié in the Latitude Bar
- "Latin-American" with Jean-Robert Lay at the Pub
- "Evening dance" with Guillaume Ambre and Nathalie Coste, usually with Croisières Bleu Marine but, for this one evening only, to be seen on the dance floor in the Parisien Bar.

The SeaFrance Rodin will be playing host to three musical events:

12.15 p.m. crossing from Dover:

- Concert by St. Edmund's music school in the Parisien Bar

8.30 p.m. crossing from Dover

- Irish music with the Hot Rats in the Pub
- Performance by singer Lynne Ashton in the Latitude Bar

Information and bookings available now:

www.seafrance.com and 0825.826.000 (0.15 € / min. incl. VAT)

SeaFrance provides 30 crossings a day between Calais and Dover in under 90 minutes

Press Officer: Muriel Mironneau MMironneau@seafrance.fr Tel : 03.21.46.40.38 Mobile : 06.16.35.04.96

Press Release